Drift Filter Tap

1909980
Available with complete
water filter kit

With a unique advanced and hidden filter system, the Mizu Drift Filter Tap uses a dual cartridge to deliver only the cleanest, most pure water for consumption.

Twist Filter Cartridge

A simple twist top mechanism enables hygienic removal of the contaminated filter. The easy to remove filter housing requires only a twist to retract and dispose, and is just as easy to replace with a new one – no gloves required.

Superior Filter

The advanced filtration system removes sediment and rust, and decreases chemicals and odours so that you can enjoy clean and pure water every time.

A helping hand in the bathroom

Whether it's to manoeuvre on and off the toilet, steady yourself in the shower or if you're just thinking of future proofing your space - our sophisticated range of grab rails make moving around the bathroom easier.

Mizu Universal Inwall Body

Freedom to choose

Stress free tapware

The Mizu Universal Inwall Body gives you the freedom to take your time selecting your tapware design and finishes. A separate inwall piece and handle trim kit means you can make your choice when you want, as many times as you want.

Choose without delay

It can be hard to visualise how your tapware will look when your bathroom is still under construction. The Mizu Universal Inwall Body lets you take your time without delaying your project. Simply install, proceed with your build and choose the shape and colour of your tapware at a later date.

Evolves with your tastes

Changing your mind has never been so simple. Whether it's halfway through your build or five years down the track, your Drift and Silk tapware can be effortlessly swapped out thanks to the removable trim kit.
